The University
HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION

THE LANDS OF THE ABOVE-NAMED ASSOCIAtion are situated in San Francisco and are eligibly and most desirably located adjoining the grounds purchased by the Presbyterian University Society, on which College buildings are to be at once erected. The site is less than thirty minutes ride from Montgomery street lying just west or back of the lands of the South San Francisco Homestead and Railroad Association and the Bay View Park, almost within a stone s throw of ST. MARY'S COLLEGE.

The tract will require little or no grading, there being scarcely a single lot on which it would not be safe to build without any change of grade. It commands a

Beautiful View of the Bay,

And its opposite shore and has a soil of extreme richness. So great are the natural attractions of the spot that very many of the wealthy citizens of San Francisco have already purchased whole blocks in the same tract, and design building residences thereon

The Rev. E. Thomas, D D.,

Is President of the Association, Lester L Robinson formerly Vice President of the Sacramento Railroad Company, is the Treasurer, and Thomas B Lewis, formerly of Portland, Secretary

Four lots, 25x120 feet each, constitute a share, costing $316—paid in monthly installments of $10 each, after the first payment of $20 has been made

Maps and books giving full information of the workings of the Association can be obtained at the store of J L PARRISH & CO

It is an easy and a cheap way for young men to procure property which will in a few years make them independent.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

DATES TO MAY 9.

Washington News

WASHINGTON, May 9 —Two tribes of Sioux who came down the South Fork of the Platte had an interview near Fort Sedgwick with the commissioners They said the Sioux were greatly divided on the question of hostilities Many of them are going south to keep out of the way The Ogalas Minneconjous, Cheyennes and Arrapahoes were the principal hostile tribes

NEW YORK, May 9 —The Tribune s special dispatch says the President has appointed over one hundred internal revenue officers in those oath in direct violation of law

The Judiciary Committee are inquiring into the appointment of Provisional Governors, four of whom Holden Perry, Parsons and Johnson have been subpoenaed Each was appointed and paid in violation of the law of 1863

It is probable the expenditures of the War Department will immensely exceed estimates

The requisition of the Quartermaster's Subsistence and Pay Departments, for miscellaneous services, and the Freedmen s Bureau from the 1st of March to date, amounts to nearly twenty-six million dollars

It is thought that the expenses of the War Department for the fiscal year will be from $120 000 000 to $150,000,000, or five times as much as estimated

It is estimated that Secretary McCulloch will recommend the suspension of the payment of bounties until Congress can make special provisions for them

Alexander Cummins has resigned the Governorship of Colorado and accepted the Assessorship of the southern district of Pennsylvania.

WASHINGTON, May 9 —After the first of July payments on registered securities will be made at San Francisco as well as in the other principal cities Parties desiring to have interest paid there must give notice to the Department.

Gen Sherman states that citizens who left Fort Buford on the 16th of April, left Col Rankin and garrison well The report of the massacre originated in Chicago

Lieut Col Wesley has been ordered to report to Gen Halleck

The plates for the new three per cent bonds are prepared The bonds will be issued in August, and only for $5,000 and $10 000. The former have a red border and a vignette of Senator Fessenden the latter a green border and a vignette of Secretary McCulloch About $50 000,000 of the $10,000 bonds have been printed and delivered to the Secretary

The receipts of the Internal Revenue to-day are nearly a million

Lieut Colonel Conger states that the missing leaves of Booth's diary were torn out by Booth

The President will decide on Friday the 10th whether he will visit the Masonic celebration at Boston or the Bunker Hill celebration at Charlestown next month

In a vast number of the cotton cases now before the court, the claim question turns on the loyalty of the claimants.

NEW YORK, May 10 —The Tribune s special says the administration receives large numbers of petitions and suggestions from the South complaining that the military commanders interfere unjustly with the rights of citizens, interpret the reconstruction act too liberally , are deposing civil officers and exercising functions belonging to civil authorities

The President is holding these petitions under advisement He may give instructions to commanders to prevent unnecessary interference

The Secretary of the Interior, in compliance with Senate Resolution, gives a full report of the Indian tribes, reservations treaties etc. The number of Indians of the several tribes is 305,475 The aggregate future appropriations required during the limited number of years will not be less than $13,000

Ex Senator Cowan is employed by the Government to defend its interests in the Court of Claims in a large number of cases of captured cotton

The telegram of the death of Mr Marshall of Illinois, is a mistake The death was that of Mr Hise of Kentucky, and thought to be the result of insanity.

The Tribune says an eminent Southerner, in high authority at Washington, writes that it is the prevailing opinion that the Supreme Court will dismiss the Georgia and Mississippi Injunction bills

Letter from Tennessee

The Unionist publishes the following letter, written by a Tennessee Union man to his brother who resides in Polk county in this State:

McMINN CITY, TENNESSEE,
March 3d, 1867.

DEAR BROTHER: Your letter is the first any of us in this country have received from you since the commencement of the infamous rebellion, of which you spoke so much of in your letter You said you wished me to let you know how I got through with the war, and how our old neighbors stand, and all about it. But it would take me a month, constant writing, to give you a history of what came under my own observation as a citizen to say nothing of information which I received from brother Monroe and other good Union boys that fought the rebellion through to the bitter end.

I will state that I got through with my life by the skin of my teeth, but very much damaged in property. I made three crops during the heat of the war which were totally taken and destroyed, except what little we were able to hide from the soldiers. The armies met not far from my house, one on the east and the other on the west, and had a fight, my house being between the two armies The women and children fled to the hills, All the houses in the settlement except mine were robbed—mine being protected by the Yankees, who lay in wait in a thicket of bushes near my house all night.

Our members are all admitted to seats in Congress, and are good Union men. The Union party hold the reins of government now in this State, and we are going to hold them if we have to at the point of the bayonet. We are tired of rebel rule. We know what it is to suffer under the iron rule of rebellion. About all the old Democratic or Locofoco party were rebels, and a great many of the Whigs, and many of them lost their lives and property in the unholy cause, for which I was not at all grieved, but think our country would be better off if more of that stripe had met a like fate Many rebel citizens and rebel soldiers have left this State, and are afraid to return. They acted so badly and so tyranically to Union men It is well for them that they do not return, for when they held the country they caught up Union men who were under conscript age , hunted them down with blood hounds like wild beasts, and when they caught them, threw them into filthy, lousy prisons, and fed them on spoiled beef, heads and jaws, and corn bread without sifting, and not half enough at that. They would frequently take them out of prison and strap them across a box or a log and cowhide them once a week until they would agree to go into the rebel army, which some did to save their lives. Others would not agree to go into the rebel army were hanged. The rebels are desperate This may sound like exaggeration to you, but these deeds were perpetrated here in East Tennessee by some of the wealthiest and most influential men of that class in this end of the State. Their property has been seized and sold under the civil authorities, to try and remunerate loyal men for damage done in person and property.

George P. Dodson, our brother, was conscripted and put into the rebel army in Georgia, and remained a few months, but deserted the first opportunity and came into the Federal lines, and went with the Federal army in its advance on Dalton, and Resaca, Georgia, and acted as pilot for the Federal soldiers all through the country in which he lived, but was unfortunately captured by the rebels and carried to Rome, Georgia, and put into prison, and remained there a number of months, in which time he came near dying of starvation and abuse. Fortunately for him they went to move their prisoners to another point, and he made his escape and came into the Federal lines again, which saved his life

The rebels in this State are disfranchised and the negroes enfranchised. Rebels writhe under it and threaten us, but we are banded together and are ready for them, and if they ever kick up another fuss we will not leave a greasy spot. Keep your eyes open on rebel emigrants, for if the earth was raked and hell scraped or skimmed you could not find as bad a set of men. They are men that can't go home on account of their bad characters. They are nothing but a set of murderers, thieves and highway robbers, and ought not to be allowed to live in any civilized community, let alone participating in national affairs.

As far as concerns Andy Johnson, I hope they will impeach him, put him out of office and kick his latter end as he goes So no more on the political crisis of the country.

Z. DODSON.

A NICE PLACE TO EMIGRATE FROM —Those who contemplate embracing the first opportunity to rush to the newly acquired territory in the North, will read the following with interest.

A letter from Paris of the 22d January says that a body of peasants from the depths of Siberia have come to Paris and have put up wooden cabins like those of their own country, near the palace of the Exposition. "They suffer horribly from the mildness of our climate. The other day when it was freezing hard enough to split rocks, one of them cried out, with a melancholy air, 'O, my God, when will it get cool here?' Another, thinking it was midsummer, arrayed himself in a calico gown. A third wrote to his father 'The heat is excessive at Paris , would you believe it? For eight days that we have been here, my nose has not been frozen a single time.'"

WHAT DOES COOKING MEAN?—John Ruskin replies

It means the knowledge of Medea, and of Circe, and of Calypso, and of Helen, and of Rebecca, and of the Queen of Sheba. It means the knowledge of all herbs, and fruits, and balms, and of all that is healing and sweet in fields and groves, and savory in meats ; it means carefulness and inventiveness, and readiness of appliance , it means the economy of our great grandmothers and the science of modern chemists , it means English thoroughness, and French wit, and Arabian hospitality ; and it means, in fine, that you are to be perfectly and always to be "ladies," "loaf givers," and as you are to see, imperatively, that everybody has something pretty to put on, so you are to see, yet more imperatively, that everybody has something nice to eat.

A NOVEL REMINDER.—A woman entered a horse car in New York a short time since, and depositing on one of the seats a male child about sixteen months old, left as quietly as she had entered The child was brought to the station house, where the woman came in search of it during the night. She alleged that she had left the child in the car to remind the conductor that he was not only its father, but that he had forgotten to give her the means to support it.

MONDAY MORNING, MAY 13, 1867.

The War Cloud Lifting.

The dispute about the province of Luxemburg, which for some time has threatened to rise into a war, involving the whole continent of Europe in a mighty struggle, is likely to be settled by pacific means. Prussia, having obtained unlimited sway in Germany, desired also to possess this province, which has long been a member of the German confederation. France, jealous of the suddenly acquired power of Prussia, and vigilant to prevent her further aggrandizement, opposed her designs and prepared to resist them by force of arms. Luxemburg lies between the Rhenish provinces of Prussia and the French department of Moselle, and has an area of 2,650 square miles, with a population of about 400,000. From the fall of Napoleon to 1830 it belonged exclusively to Holland. In that year it was divided between Holland and Belgium, the latter receiving much the larger portion. In 1839, a new treaty was signed at London, by which Holland obtained about one-third of the original province or grand duchy, including the city and fortress of Luxemburg,—Belgium retaining the other part. The part belonging to Holland remained a grand duchy and a member of the German confederacy, with one vote in the German assembly. This is the territory which caused the late dispute. Piqued by her failure to obtain the Rhenish province last summer, and dreading Prussian ascendancy, France resolved that Prussia should not add to her other acquisitions a province lying upon her own border. Prussia, grown haughty by her late success, prepared to support her pretensions with arms, and the two great powers with their auxiliaries were on the brink of war. Anxious to preserve the peace of Europe, Great Britain proposed a convention at London to settle the difficulty. The proposition was accepted, and the result is a plan of adjustment by which the whole dispute will probably be composed. The grand duchy of Luxemburg is to be retained by Holland, but the great fortress is to be destroyed. This fortress of Luxemburg is one of the strongest in the world. It has been considered quite impregnable, and in this respect has been compared with Gibraltar. The place is naturally one of great strength, and has been successively fortified and improved by the Spaniards, Austrians, French and Dutch. The prospect now is that the peace of Europe will not soon be disturbed. A general European war, while it would be of advantage in some respects to the United States, would in another point of view be injurious. It would open a market for our products, but would tend to further disarrange our finances. An indication of its effects on our finances was seen a few weeks ago, when a general war in Europe seemed imminent, and when in consequence there was a very considerable decline in American securities in European capitals.

Woman's Work and Wages.

Many rostors and politicians are finding an inspiring theme for popular discourse in the movement now generally making to ameliorate the condition of laboring men by shortening the time required for a day's labor. The press to a great extent is the advocate, and the champion of the same cause. Pulpit eloquence, sometimes takes the same direction, on the principle that the object in view, and the result to be gained is social and moral reform. All this may be very well, though the remedy sought is plainly beyond the compass of the means and agencies employed to secure it. No person would regret to see such a condition of things brought about as would enable men to get a livelihood by less severe toil. But there is one class of the community who, in this struggle, are quite overlooked. Stalwart men are demanding relief from incessant toil, and the champions of their cause are unremitting in appeals and arguments in their behalf; but the harder condition of overworked women receives little attention. The strong man to whom all occupations are open, who is at liberty to choose his employment, and who has strength in his arm to hew out his path to fortune, finds those who are ready to second his endeavors to obtain partial release from unremitting labor, but woman, whose path is circumscribed by conventionalities, who is restricted to very few and these unremunerative occupations, who works a greater number of hours than man and for smaller pay, obtains less encouragement for relief in her harder lot. The legislation of the day in regard to labor is calculated chiefly for the benefit of men, and the sympathies which the agitators of the subject express are mainly directed in the same way. We have heard nothing of labor leagues composed of women in the Eastern cities where "strikes" are the order of the day, there are no processions of women parading the streets and demanding less work and more pay. Such demonstrations would meet with no encouragement even from those who are the most enthusiastic advocates of the claims of the working classes. If woman cannot be her own advocate in this agitation, she ought to find champions among those who profess to be the friends of the laboring masses. Here is a field for the philanthropist. To enlarge woman's sphere of labor, to insist upon her right to do any sort of work which she chooses to undertake and can perform well, and to claim for her as high wages as men receive for similar service, is much more necessary and much more practicable than this agitation in behalf of laboring men alone.

A Point Gained.—A Democratic editor charged members of Congress with "treason" for their course on reconstruction. We denied the allegation, and proved on Democratic principles that they had done nothing wrong, because they were merely "obeying their States." This practical illustration of the State-supremacy doctrine was a poser for the editor aforesaid, who immediately recanted his former opinions on the subject, and declared that members of Congress do not act under the orders of their States, and that the States have no right or power to control their action. This is coming to the point. Here is one step gained. The Constitution, we are told, is the paramount law for members of Congress, and they must obey it, regardless of any instructions from their States. Now the inquiry arises, if members of Congress are bound to regard National authority as superior to the authority of the States, are not all citizens bound by the same rule? If it is the duty of Congressmen so regard the National authority as supreme, is it not equally the duty of the private citizen to so regard it? Where, then, does any one get a warrant for adhering to his State against the General Government? The same principle which requires the allegiance of members of Congress to the General Government as against the States, also requires the allegiance of every citizen—including those Democratic editors who feel themselves bound to adhere to their States in every conflict of authority between them and the National Government. The Herald,—for it is that paper we are alluding to,—has got quite out of its depth. It has been compelled to deny the paramount authority of the States, and to acknowledge that of the Government of the Union. In one of its oscillations it has flopped entirely out of its little circle. The States are paramount no longer. Well, that is something gained!

A foundry is being erected at Owyhee. It will be completed in a few weeks. The originator of the enterprise says he has fifty or sixty tons of iron on hand, which will be sufficient to satisfy the present demand.

"Treason defeated in battle shall not rule by ballot."—A. Johnson, 1865.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

San Francisco, May 12.—Last night, just before the conclusion of the Black Rook, when the beautiful scene of the "Realms of Bliss" was about to be disclosed a bright light was seen running up behind and shining through the cloud drop scene, and instantly the cry of fire was raised. The gauze curtain nearest the audience was on fire, and there was danger of the destruction of the building. But there was also danger of loss of life if the panic which had been started was allowed to gain head, and jam the doors in the strife for egress. M. D. Boruck and some other gentlemen in the audience checked the impending panic by coolly urging the people to be quiet, and after a few had rushed from the house the audience remained standing until the fire was extinguished. The theatre was fortunately saved without damage.

News from Arizona.

Los Angeles, May 11.—A gentleman just arrived from Prescott reports that an express had just arrived when he left, with the news that the troops of either Capt. Williams or Capt. Crouse's commands had been defeated by the Apaches near the Verde, four miles east of Prescott, and forty men killed. He asserts that the news is positive. About two hundred Apaches are reported as raiding on the La Paz and Prescott road. They captured forty eight mules near Abbey's Wells, between Hannegor's and McMullen's, Charley Beach's, Frinks or Warringer's train, probably the former. They are also reported to have captured Manassi's train of seventy mules, loaded with Ravena's goods; but another and later report says that train is secure.

Mrs. Gov. McCormick died suddenly on the last day of April, after it was supposed by the attendant physician that the danger was passed.

Los Angeles, May 11.—On the 4th inst., at 4 o'clock A. M., whilst the stage was on the opposite side of the Colorado river, from Hardyville Landing, Arizona, a sad accident happened as follows: The driver hallooed for the ferryman without success, and called out to those inside the stage to discharge a pistol to attract attention. Mr. O. L. Strong took his pistol to cock it, and finding the hammer difficult to raise, pulled it back with force, but not catching, the charge went off, and passing through an inch board killed the driver, Mr. James Tuttle. An inquest was held and Mr. Strong was exonerated without the slightest shadow of blame. There was another man with the driver on the outside, and one or two persons beside Mr. Strong were on the inside. It was simply a most unfortunate accident.

Unionville, May 11.—The Humboldt river is entirely out of its banks. It is feared the bridge over it will be washed away. The rise is caused by the snow melting.

A letter from Silver City, Idaho, says that with Indians and assassinations this place is getting decidedly hot. Some person attempted to kill A. P. Minear last night, the 5th, but did not succeed.

A party is out helping Jennings against a body of Indians.

STATE ITEMS.

It is rumored here, says the Eugene Journal, that a schooner with all the cargo burned a few days ago in the Umpqua caused by taking fire from unslacked lime on board.

At the May term of the County Commissioners, on settlement of the Sheriff it appears that $44,254 was the amount of tax levied upon assessment of Linn county, of which $38,081 was collected, leaving delinquent $6,183 14.

The Albany Journal says: Albany is a town of near two thousand inhabitants, and is the greatest shipping point on the Willamette river, yet there is not a licensed grog shop in the place! There are two places where liquor may be bought by the "bottle," besides a couple of lager conveniences.

The State Journal says: "Mr. David Coleman, of Siuslaw, sheared fifteen and a half pounds of wool from a French Merino buck, only two years old, and being thus stripped, he weighed one hundred and fifty pounds. Beat that who can, the Paris Exposition to the contrary, notwithstanding. Mark you, this is no coarse grained hairy beast like some peoplaraise and call sheep; he's a blooded animal and a fine wooled "critter."

The Confederate Democrat of Albany mentions the fact, that an agent is now canvassing Linn county for subscriptions for a book, entitled "Lee and his Generals," and adds: "It is, perhaps, proper also to state, in this connection, that he is authorized to solicit subscriptions for the Democrat." It is highly proper to make such a statement in such a connection. There is no "perhaps" about it. It is fit, every way, that the book and the paper should be canvassed for together.

The Linn county Jockey Club have resolved to hold a term of three days racing, as follows: First day—Thursday, June 27th.—Half mile, two best in three. Purse of $75 in coin. Entrance, $12 50. Three to enter and two to start. Second day—Friday, June 28th.—Single dash of a mile. Purse, $100; entrance, $20. Three to enter and two to start. Third day—Saturday, June 29th.—Mile heats, best two in three. Purse, $150. Entrance, $25. Three to enter and two to start. On the first day, foot race, free for all. Purse, $40. Entrance, $5. To run 100 yards; to come off at 4 P. M.

The Democrat says: Mr. John Benson, a resident of Benton county, while engaged in cutting timber, found it necessary to climb into a tree for the purpose of disengaging one of its boughs from that of another tree against which it had lodged. While chopping the limb, it broke in another place, and fell against him with such force as to dislocate his wrist and hurl him violently to the ground. He fell upon his face, bruising it shockingly; and ere he had time to regain his feet the broken limb—which was very large came tumbling down upon him, almost breaking his back, and inflicting serious injuries inwardly. The accident occurred last Monday, and although it was at first feared that his wounds would prove mortal, we now learn that his friends entertain confident hopes of his recovery.

Paying the Debt.—The San Francisco Times remarks on this subject:

Should we attempt to pay the public debt in the present generation, we shall not only curb our growth, and therefore do an injustice to that posterity which some of our political economists seem so anxious to relieve. but we shall make the debt intensified in its pressure by confining its burden to the few. At the present moment we have a population of about thirty-four millions, and a debt of nearly $2,600,000,000, which gives, per capita, a liability of almost $80. In twenty years from now, our population, with the large acquisitions of territory which are likely to be made in the interim, will have doubled, and the individual responsibility, in consequence, will be reduced one-half. The North American provinces of Great Britain will long ere that period, have been merged in the United States and our southern boundary may be greatly extended beyond present limits. Besides this, millions who are now in Europe will have become part and parcel of our Republic, and liable to pay their quota of that debt which has been the means of preserving to them the inestimable privilege of freedom in a country, whose lands are open to the poorest immigrant. Looking at the matter from every standpoint—regarding it in the light of both expediency and justice—this public debt, the interest of which is in itself a sufficient burden on our people, should be left, at least that portion of it which can be so treated without any breach of faith, to posterity to settle. We do not say this as underrating our capacity to liquidate the whole amount within the next ten or twenty years; but many things are possible that are injurious, and this thing would be excessively so. It is statesmanship to relieve the nation just now, not to harass it with a heavy and annoying taxation.

The people keep the Radical party in power to feed and educate the negro. What a beautiful beast the Radical party is of "God and morality," taxes and niggers.—Albany Democrat.

Considering that Congress has made a large appropriation from the public treasury to save the Democrat's political friends at the South from starvation, and that the wide-reaching benevolence of the North is giving millions more for the same object, decency, if nothing else, would seem to require that this talk about "paying taxes to feed niggers" should stop. The whites of the South are receiving more assistance than the negroes; and the nation is now paying taxes to preserve the lives of those who fought to destroy it. These being the facts, the Democrat and its kind would do well to keep silence on this subject.

Whenever you find a man anywhere prating about the Constitution of the United States, spot him; he's a traitor.

These words are sometimes ascribed to Senator Wade, and sometimes to other prominent Union men against whom Copperhead editors wish to exhibit their malice. But the original author and sole proprietor of this sentiment is Andrew Johnson of Tennessee, acting President of the United States. The words were uttered by him in a public speech in 1864.

The States have given no instructions in any form in regard to the Military Subjugation of the South, which is now the main question at issue.—Herald.

This question is not at all at issue at this time. It was at issue for several years prior to April, 1865, and the result was against the South. On the surrender of the rebel armies the military subjugation of the South was complete. The acknowledgment of this fact is what ex-rebels mean by saying "they accept the situation."

HONESTY IS THE BEST POLICY, is a true and valuable saying. KOHN & FISHEL, No. 91 Front Street, have followed it up, therefore are now selling more Clothing and Gents' Furnishing Goods, Dry Goods, etc., than any other house in the State. The people are confident that they can trade with them without fear, and buy their wares at prices beyond competition.

PERFECTLY SATISFIED.—Every one that visits BUCHTEL'S PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY, comes away perfectly satisfied with their bargains. The highest style of the art is reached in the beautiful Sun Pearls and Photographs.

If people who suffer from the dull stupidity that meets us everywhere in spring, and too often in all seasons of the year, knew how quick it could be cured by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla to purge the bile from their systems, we should have better neighbors as well as clearer heads to deal with. dlc

PIONEER WASHER.
JAMES BRUSIE,
AGENT FOR OREGON AND WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

THIS CELEBRATED WASHING MACHINE IS now for the first time introduced to the Oregon public. It is unrivalled for its simplicity, durability and the rapidity and ease of its action. Washing the dirtiest clothes perfectly clean in from five to ten minutes, with but slight labor, and lasting, with proper care, for ten years. The wear and tear of clothing in washing by this machine is vastly less than by any other known process of washing. It is easily worked by one person.

This Machine captured the Special Premium at the California State Fair, and all that have used it pronounce it an invaluable adjunct to aid housekeepers and families and washing men and washing women.

It has been extensively introduced throughout the State of California, and receives the universal commendation of all who have used it.

The undersigned is now in the city of Portland, where he can be seen at Mr. O. Kilbourn's Store, corner of Front and Yamhill Sts., East side, Portland, and is prepared to furnish the Machine to purchasers, and also to sell and dispose of County Rights for the sale of the same.

Portland, May 8th, 1867.

We the undersigned certify that we have used the PIONEER WASHING MACHINE, and cheerfully recommend it as the best we have ever seen, and is in every respect just what it is represented:

LOUIS A. GARNETT.......... President and Manager.
JOHN HEWSTON, Jr.......Chemist and Superintendent.

THIS COMPANY HAVING GREATLY enlarged their Refining Works, and introduced many other important improvements, are pleased to announce that they feel warranted in again reducing materially their terms of doing business.

THE TARIFF OF CHARGES

Which they now submit to the public—considered with reference to the cost of material and labor—is lower than in any other part of the world, and secures to the mining interest of this coast an important increase in both the minting and commercial value of bullion.

Their charges hereafter will be as follows:

FOR ASSAYING DEPOSITS FOR UNPARTED GOLD BARS.

One-eighth of one per cent. (heretofore a quarter) for all amounts over $1,600, and two dollars for any smaller sum. Returns made in twenty-four hours.

FOR ASSAYING DEPOSITS FOR UNPARTED SILVER BARS.

Two dollars for the gold contained, up to $1,600, and one-eighth of one per cent. for all amounts over that sum, and one per cent. on the silver contained. Returns made in twenty-four hours.

FOR REFINING DEPOSITS MADE FOR COIN OR FINE BARS.

On bullion under 300 parts gold, 2 cents per ounce.

On bullion from 300½@600 parts gold, 4 cents per ounce.

On bullion from 600½@750 parts gold, 6 cents per ounce.

On bullion from 750½@949½ parts gold, 8 cents per ounce.

Above 950 the only charge will be for coinage. But there will be no charge for refining less than two dollars.

FOR COINING GOLD.

This charge will be the same as at the Mint—a half of one per cent.—and which is paid by us to that institution. But there will be no charge in future for making fine gold or silver bars from bullion refined by us.

RETURNS IN COIN IN FORTY-EIGHT HOURS.

Silver contained in deposits for coin will be accounted for at the same rate customary at the Mint.

Gold bars of other Assayers, in good standing, will be cashed by us at the highest market rates.

Dust and bullion can be forwarded to us from any part of the country, and returns made through Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express.

CHARGES AT U. S. BRANCH MINT.

For the convenience of those not familiar with the terms of the Mint, we subjoin the tariff of charges now in force at that institution:

For refining bullion under 300 parts gold, 3 cents per ounce.

For refining bullion from 300½@600 parts gold, 5 cents per ounce.

For refining bullion from 600½@750 parts gold, 7 cents per ounce.

For refining bullion from 750½@830 parts gold, 11 cents per ounce.

For refining bullion from 830½@949½ parts gold, 14 cents per ounce.

The charge for coinage is half of one per cent., and the charge for making fine silver bars, the same.

Comparing the net value of deposits for coinage, with the proceeds of unparted gold bars sold in the market—assuming that the bars have cost ⅛ of one per cent.—they must be sold at the following par rates to equal the return which would have been made had they been deposited for coinage:

850 par to equal Mint return, at refining charge of 14 cents.

845 par to equal Mint return, at refining charge of 14 cents.

885 par to equal San Francisco A. & R. Works return, at refining charge of 8 cents. mh14tp3m

MILITARY.—From the Mountaineer we learn the following facts about military matters On Tuesday Major Glenn, Paymaster U S A, arrived at the Dalles en route to Fort Boise via Camp Watson, to pay off the troops ..... On Wednesday Major Simon Francis, Paymaster U S A, paid off the troops at Fort Dalles, and on Thursday left for Fort Lapwai He intends returning by Monday, when he will pay off the Indian scouts..... W. M Rand, late a Lieutenant in Co. "G" 1st Oregon Infantry, and later, clerk to Paymaster Francis, is lying dangerously ill at Victoria. Lieutenant Western lately returned from his scout in the neighborhood of Harney Lake. He came upon Indians on the bank of Silver's river and captured all their horses, camp equipage, provisions, etc. Several Indians were killed or wounded and the rest got across the river and escaped. Lieutenant Western recovered the tools stolen by the Indians from John Smith, at the John Day bridge on South Fork, some time ago......A soldier at Camp Watson, named Ryan, Co. "I" 1st U. S Cavalry, was shot dead by the Sergeant of the guard... . Col. Baker is getting ready for a two months scout towards Harney Lake.... On Sunday morning last before day break, a small party of Indians fired into a number of men camped near the road, about three miles this side of Camp Watson, and severely wounded a man by the name of Charles Ryan A detachment of twelve men from the Post was sent out after the red devils, whom they overhauled on John Day river, pitched into them and killed one and wounded several others, capturing several mules belonging to C. M. Lockwood and one horse.

WINE CULTURE.—We have received a copy of a small treatise on "Wine Culture in California," by Henry Gibbons, M. D. It was written out, the author says, from the notes of a lecture, and is addressed to the understanding, the heart and the conscience of the people of California. It is an argument for total abstinence and against converting the product of the vineyards of that State into intoxicating poisons—wine and brandy. It exposes many of the fallacies existing in the public mind concerning the harmlessness of wine-bibbing and shows up the many ways in which traffickers poison their customers with what they call wine, but which is really only a disgusting compound of water, drugs and active poisons. The book attacks in very caustic language the argument of those who appeal to Congress to remove the tax on domestic wines, urging as a reason for it that the use of such wines will be promotive of temperance. That portion of the press, too, which has encouraged the wine-making interest, comes in for a few very severe thrusts The writer cites the condition of the wine-making districts of Europe, against the policy and the right to convert the Golden State into the mere abode of wine-makers, wine sellers and wine-bibbing canaille So deeply has the writer succeeded in probing this subject, that the book has lately received a flattering endorsement from the State Temperance Union, which recommended its general distribution.

BUTTEVILLE.—Capt. E. G. Adams, Grand Lecturer of the I. O. G. T., writes us from Butteville, Marion county, May 11th: A Lodge of Good Templars was organized by me at this place May 9th, 1867, number of charter members, fifteen. The Lodge takes the name of the "Napoleon lodge." Its time of meeting, Saturday, 3 P. M. The following is the list of officers: Barclay Jennings, W C. T.; Mrs. Mary A Geer, W. R S.; Mrs Rebecca H. Cone, W. L. S.; Miss Clara Matthieu, W. V. T.; Chas. Matthieu, Jr, W. S; Miss Rosa H Barnhart, W. A. S; Mrs. Kitty A. Murray, W. F S.; Mrs Martha Barnhart, W. T.; Byron S. Clark, W. M; Miss Violet A. Geer, W. D M; Miss Annetta A. Geer, W. I G; Miss Ella H. Geer, W. O. G.; Dr. James W. Murray, W. C; Dr. Fred. W. Geer, P. W. C. T. I would mention as an item of interest that Drs. Murray and Geer have opened a Water Cure establishment here and a bath house, that meets with much favor from the inhabitants. Prof. King, who is an excellent teacher, commences his school on Monday, the 13th inst. Butteville is bound to make one of the most desirable villages in the State.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL PIC-NIC.—The pic-nic of the Sunday schools of this city on Saturday, was the largest turnout of this kind, of the season. About 800 people, including the children, attended the excursion and participated in the exercises at the grounds, on Ross Island The steamer Senator took them up in the morning and brought them back upon her return from Oregon City in the afternoon. It is safe to say that no steamer on this river ever carried such a number of human beings as were crowded and packed and perched about the Senator on this occasion. The party concur almost unanimously in their expressions of satisfaction with the management of the pic-nic, throughout.

FREIGHT FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The Oriflamme took the following freights; 10 barrels beef, 4 cases smoked beef, 22 half barrels shoulders, 17 kegs butter, 5 boxes tobacco, 440 sacks wheat, 11,005 sacks flour, 674 boxes fruit, 60 boxes dried fruit, 469 bundles shingles, 7 coops fowl, 1 box coal, 29 cases merchandise, 16 boxes eggs, 37 rolls leather, 1 half barrel whisky, 15 bales wool, 1 bale deer skins, 2 bales furs, 2 sacks potatoes, 1 case cigars, 1 sack seeds, 1 case boots, 18 cases hams, 45 cases bacon, 2 casks madder, 13 spruce bolts, 50 hides, 47 sacks bacon, 711 bundles oak staves, 260 bundles spruce staves, 156 bundles heading.

PASSENGERS FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The steamship Oriflamme, sailed from this port for San Francisco, Saturday evening, May 11th, with the following list of passengers: G Tomlinson, Wm Dullon, Miss C Sarttia, D Reggie, wife and child, J B Price and wife, Miss Ella Smith, F Wenman, S D Whittaker, G D Hankin, R H Brown, G W Weaver, T W Ayres, J W Weatherford, Joseph Saal, F Smith, Asa Harker, A S Crable and wife, Miss E Trombly, R Pierce, A Hall, David Aaron, A Johns, Miss Lizzie Ilser, Bat Deerage, W G West (W F & Co's Messenger.) Total, 28.

TREASURE SHIPMENT.—The following amounts of treasure were shipped by the Oriflamme, on Saturday, to San Francisco;

Wells, Fargo & Co	$40,000
Ladd & Tilton	16,000
ith Bros.	8,000
Total	$61,000

DISCHARGED.—The jury in the case of the U. S. vs. I. A. Davenport, retired Saturday afternoon, and soon agreed upon a verdict of "not guilty," on the first count in the indictment, but on the second count they failed to agree, standing eleven for acquittal to one for conviction, till a late hour, when they were discharged The first count alleged perjury in returns of revenue for 1864 and the second count, the same in returns of 1865.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT—DEADY, JUSTICE.—On Saturday, the 11th, the following proceedings were had: U. S. vs I. A. Davenport, indicted for perjury; argument by counsel, submitted to the Jury.

U S. vs. A. M Loryea, indicted for perjury; nolle pros entered and the case dismissed.

J. B. Piette was discharged from further attendance as a trial juror.

OREGON PAPER.—The paper mill at Oregon City is about to take a step forward. The machinery has been improved so much that seventy-five to eighty reams of wrapping paper per day are only an easy day's work and its rapid production has accumulated a pretty good stock beyond immediate requirements. Some time during the present week, the machinery will be started on Manilla paper.

OAK STAVES.—A portion of the freight of the Oriflamme consisted of oak staves from the barrel factory of Messrs. McCraken, Merrill & Co. They are sent below to be put up as "tight barrels," for mess meats, etc. We examined a large pile of them on the wharf the other day, and could not help feeling a little local pride that Oregon is able to send our "big sister" such samples of timber and workmanship.

EVIDENCE OF SUCCESS.—The Oregon Pioneer, German paper of this city, has reached its fiftieth number. For some weeks it has been issuing a half sheet supplement, but the last issue, Saturday the 11th, consisted of the regular folio and a whole sheet supplement. Its advertising patronage, too, has increased considerably, of late and altogether, the evidences of its success are apparent.

NEW BRICK BUILDING.—We notice a portion of the brick, with sand, lime, lumber, etc, on the ground for the construction of a brick building on the corner of First and Salmon streets. The building will be two stories high The owner, we understand, is J. M. Fryer, of Yamhill county.

AUCTION SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—Oscar Kilbourn, Auctioneer, will to-day sell for the guardian of the minor heirs of the Blackestone estate, a parcel of the Blackestone claim, containing five acres. The sale will be at the court house at 10 o'clock A. M.

CITIZENS' COURSE OF LECTURES.—The sixth and last lecture of the Citizens' Course, will be delivered at Oro Fino Hall, by Rev G. H Atkinson, this evening. Subject: Teachableness The lecture will commence at half past seven o'clock.

STOCK FROM PORTLAND TO THE DALLES.—During the last week, the numbers of stock, taken from Portland to the Dalles, were as follows, according to the Mountaineer's register: 566 head of cattle, 81 horses, 83 hogs and 300 sheep.

SPIRITUAL LECTURES.—Rev. Ben. Todd delivered lectures, or perhaps, rather, sermons, to the spiritual society of Portland yesterday and last evening, at Oro Fino Hall. On both occasions his audiences were large.

A REVENUE CUTTER FOR THE COLUMBIA RIVER.—A dispatch from San Francisco, dated May 10th, says that the U S. Revenue Cutter Shubrick, has been ordered to duty on the Columbia river.

WILLAMETTE FREIGHTS.—Arrived per steamer Senator from Oregon City, May 11th: 1,704 qr sks flour, 123 boxes apples, 320 bags wheat, 100 bags feed, 10 gunnies bacon, 4 bales woolen goods, 1 bale furs, 1 dressed hog

ARRESTED.—An individual named Walton was arrested yesterday by officer Saunders on a charge of whipping his wife. The charge will be inquired into this morning before the Recorder

PIONEERS Will meet for practice at half past five o'clock, this evening Special meeting this evening at eight o'clock at Buchtel's Gallery.

SALE OF BOOKS.—The auction sale of books, at F Roman's, First street, will be continued this evening by Mr. Kilbourn, auctioneer.

THE FIDELITER.—A telegram from Victoria, Saturday afternoon, announced the sailing of the Fideliter for this port, at 10 A. M. of that day.

THE IDAHO.—The steamship Idaho sailed from San Francisco, for this port, on Saturday, the 11th.

WHY IS IT?—Notwithstanding the dull times, everything is lovely at Barman Bros., and they are selling lots of goods. Why is it? Because they have only good goods, advertise muchly and sell cheaply.

RICHARDSON'S NEW BOOK, "BEYOND THE MISSISSIPPI."—One of the most interesting books of the season promises to be Albert D Richardson's new volume, "Beyond the Mississippi, from the Great River to the Great Ocean." It will be issued early in April and is published by subscription only by the "American Publishing Company," Hartford, Connecticut.

Mr. Richardson's letters from Nevada, Montana, Idaho, and other portions of the Pacific Coast and mountain regions will not be forgotten They formed an attractive feature in the New York Tribune's columns during 1865-6, and are reproduced in a different form in this volume. No more interesting or amusing volume, judging from advance sheets before me, will be given to the public this year. It is very handsomely illustrated. Among the engravings will be found one of your city, and another entitled "Down the Sierra Nevadas" Mr. Richardson accompanied Speaker Colfax on the famous trip to the Pacific His work will be as valuable and more interesting than that of Mr. Bowles. A wider experience and as good journalistic ability and tact fit Mr. Richardson for his task of rapidly but vividly giving the general reader a series of pen photographs of the country and the life in Kansas and beyond the Pacific from 1857 to 1867.—Wash. Cor. Virginia Enterprise.

THE MAYORALTY OF WASHINGTON.—A late Eastern paper says:

Under the law of universal suffrage in Washington the registry of voters is going on there, and as far as it has progressed (three wards out of the seven) the registered negro voters are largely in the majority. The population of the city, in round numbers, is perhaps seventy thousand whites to thirty thousand blacks. The whites, however, it is reported, are so largely disgusted with negro suffrage and the oath of loyalty that they are letting the registry go by default. If they choose to continue this game, the next thing will be a negro Mayor for Washington by default of the disgusted whites. And if they will have it so, even so let it be. The national capital is the proper place for the practical inauguration of the new epoch of political equality, and an American Mayor of African descent would not be a bad beginning. If we are, then, to have the millennium thus inaugurated in Washington, is not Andrew Johnson at hand ready to volunteer as the orator of the day?

The Richmond Dispatch has been looking around to ascertain who will be eligible to office under the changed condition of affairs, and is quite cheered to find so many capable persons still left to take charge of public matters. The disfranchisement of former leaders and representative men impose the duties upon those not disqualified, and consequently the young men of the present generation must take upon themselves the burthen of office. This shows the wisdom of the Congressional action in the premises. It is well for a new set of men to come into power at the South, for they will have less to unlearn than their seniors. Under their guidance the Southern States will much sooner recover from the calamities of the war than under the leadership of the men who brought on the struggle, and will sooner find themselves in harmony with the Northern people.

THE RUSH FOR THE FAMILY DYE COLORS of Howe & Stevens is as great as ever. Once introduced to a family or neighborhood, and they spread like wildfire. The truth is, they are so nice to have about the house that every prudent and sensible matron will have them. Howe & Stevens employ some one hundred hands to keep up to orders. Sold by Smith & Davis.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.—From and after this day the well-known FRENCH LAFAYETTE RESTAURANT will serve a first-class table at the reduced price of Seven Dollars per week.

A CARD.

The undersigned feel it to be only their duty, in this public manner, to commend in the highest terms of praise the brave and generous conduct of J. W. Munson, Principal Keeper, James Anderson and John G Belfrage, Assistants, of Cape Hancock Lighthouse, and the four soldiers of that military post, for their prompt action in manning the life boat at that station as soon as the condition of the boat was seen from the Lighthouse, and coming four or five miles to our assistance, while the tide and smooth water permitted it, on the occasion of the recent wrecking of the bark W. B. Scranton, on the Columbia river bar—thereby enabling the passengers and all who could be of no use on the vessel to get off safely with their baggage and personal effects.

The prompt action of Mr. Munson in manning the boat possibly prevented the loss of any lives with the wreck, or any other calamity such as has too often befallen those who have had the misfortune to be wrecked on the Columbia bar.

Extracting teeth by Dr. Richardson's apparatus, with Ether or Rhigolene Spray, is local in its application, the tooth and surrounding parts only becoming insensible to pain. Those suffering from bad teeth can now have them removed free from pain and without the effects of inhaling chloroform, ether or nitrous oxide (laughing gas).

AN ANTIDOTE FOR POISON.

THE PAIN KILLER.—Rev T. Allen, writing from Tavoy, Burmah, says: "Within the past four years I have used and disposed of about five hundred bottles, but am now out. Please send me a fresh supply as soon as you can—say two hundred bottles. I dare not be without it myself, and there are endless calls for it, both by Burmans and Karens I always take it with me into the jungles, and have frequent occasion to use it, both on myself and others One night, while sleeping in an open Zayato, I was awoke by a most excruciating pain in my foot. On examination, I found I had been bitten by a centipede. I immediately applied the Pain Killer, and found instant relief. In less than an hour I was again asleep."

Rev Mr Hibbard, writing from Burmah to his father, says: "I have used Davis' Pain Killer for coughs, colds, summer complaints, burns, and for the sting of scorpions, with uniform success We always keep it where we can lay our hands on it in the dark, if need be." ap20dtc

MOTHERS WHO HAVE DELICATE CHILDREN, who are subject to Croup. When your child goes to bed wheezing and coughing, you know not before morning Croup may set in, and before you can get a Physician, your child may be beyond the reach of help. Allen's Lung Balsam should always be kept in your house, and be given immediately when the first symptoms appear, which will remove the mucus collected in the throat, and save the life of your dear child. For sale by the Dealers in Family Medicines generally.

STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities, CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

My Schools and Schoolmasters.

[From the St Genevieve (Mo.) Representative]

The rural districts develop some odd and rare characters. Profound ignorance is sometimes to be pitied, while at other times it assumes such a grotesque and ludicrous character that it would excite the merriment of old Coriolus himself.

We have lately come into the possession of the facts of a case which transpired somewhere in Southeast Missouri that are too good to go unchronicled.

A certain knight of the birchen rod, wishing to obtain a certificate as school teacher, as required by the general statutes of Missouri, called upon the Superintendent of Public Schools not long since, when the following dialogue took place

"Morning Mr Superintendent."

"Good morning, sir, take a chair."

"You see, Mr., I'm schoolin' it out in my settlement, and have been for risin' fifteen year, and I want a stifficate to keep a doin'."

"All right, sir, I'm ready to grant you the certificate, but before doing so I must examine you as to your competency."

"Now, look a here, 'taint no use for to 'samine me, fur as I said afore, I've been schoolin' it risin fifteen year."

"Yes, sir, that may all be, but the law requires me to examine you before issuing the certificate, and I must do my duty."

"'Taint no use—I never was samined in this way, and I have a heap of stifficates, and can fetch 'em in to you."

"Never mind the certificates; you must be examined as to your qualifications, or the certificate cannot issue."

"Well—but tain't nary bit of use. For I have been—"

"Never mind that; what branches do you teach in your school?"

"O, readin', spellin', writin' and figgerin'."

"Is that all?"

"Yes, the folks out there don't want anything else. They're down on high schoolin'."

"Don't you teach grammar?"

"O, no, the folks are down on grammar larnin'."

"Don't some of scholars want to study grammar?"

"Nary one. But five years ago one old man Hamphill's gals tuck a notion to study grammar, but in 'bout two weeks she gin it up."

"Well, it is necessary that you, as a teacher, should have some knowledge of grammar, and I must examine you in that branch."

"Well, now; that's no use—the folks don't want that kind of larnin'."

"Very likely. But can you tell me how many parts of speech there are?"

"Well, now; let me see; I'll declare it has slipped my memory, I don't just recollect. But anyhow, grammar is super-flew-ous."

"Can't you give a guess?"

"Well, I should say about two!"

"That won't do; guess again."

"Well, at fardest, I should say four."

"Are you sure?"

"Well, as near as I can recollect, it mought be and it moughtent."

"Now, sir, tell me what is English grammar!"

"As near as I can recollect, it's a smallish book 'bout so long [measures with his hand] and 'bout a half an inch thick."

"Did you ever see Kirkham or Pinney?"

"No, sir they never lived in our settlement."

"Do you know anything about Bullion or Smith?"

"O, yes, I've hearn tell a heap of 'Old Bullion,' but I never have saw him. I voted for him onct, but he took the abolition chute afterwards, and I was powerful sorry I voted for him. As fur Smith, he lives across the run, 'bout two miles from my house. His boys go to school to me."

"Very well. What is geography?"

"Don't use any in my school, but if I don't disremember, I seed some in town, and they're 'bout the size of a chunk of a shingle."

"Which is the largest river in the world?"

"The Mississippi, of course."

"What is the shape of the earth?"

"Well, in our region it's right smart hilly, but further down it's flat and swampish."

"Which is the highest mountain in the world?"

"Pilot Knob."

"Very well. Now, sir, you say that in your school you only teach spelling, reading, writing and arithmetic?"

"No, sir, I didn't say I learned 'em rethmetic; I learns 'em readin', spellin', writin' and figgerin'."

"Exactly. Now, after your scholars have gone through the spelling books and readers, what do you do then?"

"I turn 'em back."

"So you keep them at the same books all the time?"

"Yes, sir; there's nothin' like layin' the foundation well, and turns 'em back till they finishes their schoolin'."

"Just so. Now, sir, it seems to me that you are a little rusty in some of the branches, and before I can give you a certificate you must study a little and become better posted."

"Now, I don't see as I can, for I've got a power of work on hand, and the old woman has a risin' on her finger, and John has a bealin' on his left foot, which gives me more'n I can see to. Besides the people don't want that kind of teachin', and it would be a mighty pity to keep the children out of school now, for they're most uncommon bad off for schoolin'."

"Very, well, I will take the matter under advisement, and you can call again in ten days."

So the native educator departed, not altogether disconsolate. The originality of the answers of pedagogue eclipse Shakespeare's celebrated Sir Hugh Evans, who "smelt false Latin," and overtops the grandiloquent nonsense displayed in the high Court of Justice Dogberry.

Morgan's Men in Ohio.—The ex-rebel Gen. Basil Duke, late second in command to Morgan, writes of the conduct of the rebel troops on the celebrated raid into Ohio:

The disposition for wholesale plunder exceeded anything that any of us had ever seen before. The men seemed to be actuated by a desire to "pay off" in the "enemy's country," all scores that the Federal army had chalked up in the South. The great cause for apprehension, which our situation might have inspired, only seemed to make them more reckless. Calico was the staple article of appropriation—each man (who could get one) tied a bolt of it to his saddle, only to throw it away [illegible] get a fresh one at the first opportunity. They [illegible] pillage with any sort of method or reas[illegible] seemed to be a mania, senseless and pu[illegible] One man carried a bird cage with th[illegible] canaries in it for two days. Another one ca[illegible] a chafing dish, which looked like a small me[illegible] on the pummel of his saddle, until an officer forced him to throw it away. Although the weather was intensely warm, another still slung seven pairs of skates around his neck, and chuckled over his acquisition. I saw very few articles of real value taken—they pillaged like boys robbing an orchard. I would not have believed that such a passion could have been developed, so ludicrously, among any body of civilized men. At Piketon, Ohio, a man broke through the guard posted at a store, rushed in (trembling with excitement and avarice,) and filled his pockets with horn buttons. They would with few exceptions, throw away their plunder after awhile, like children tired of their toys.

The General says they were treated with very distinguished attention by the loyal citizens of Ohio:

Before quitting Ohio it is but just to acknowledge the kind hospitality of the citizens. At every house that we approached the dwellers thereof, themselves not at home, perhaps unable to endure a meeting that would have been painful, had left warm pies, freshly baked, on the tables. This touching attention to our tastes was appreciated. Some individuals were indelicate enough to hint that the pies were intended to propitiate us, and to prevent the plunder of the houses.

Talking as a Fine Art.—No man who can talk well, and has sagacity enough to use the gift for the advancement of his worldly interests, need ever be poor. To the inheritor of a ready made fortune, conversational gifts are not, perhaps, a matter of much importance. Wealth is a special pleader which requires no assistance from art or nature to win consideration in society, and the veriest stammerer and blunderer that ever misused the parts of speech, need not despair of popularity and praise, if he has had the luck to be born with a silver spoon in his mouth instead of a silvery tongue. His money will speak for him, and to the purpose. Golden opinions are easily procured, if you have the gold wherewith to purchase them. But to him who has to make his own way in the world, verbal magnetism (if we may use the phrase) is a great assistance. Let the poor man thus endowed cultivate his faculty carefully and use it judiciously, and it will be sure to enrich him. If he has plenty of executive ability, as well as an agreeable fluency and a convincing way of putting things, so much the better.

A Whole Steer at one Chaw.—The other day, at Toledo, Ohio, a cattle dealer received pay for a steer which he had sold to a butcher, and, rolling the greenbacks into a small wad, put them into his tobacco box. Shortly after he extracted, as he thought, a portion of the tobacco, but, with all his mastication, could extract none of the savory juices, and finally took his quid out of his mouth to look at it, when he found he had been chewing his roll of greenbacks. He stood aghast for a moment and then burst out—"Cuss the luck! —a whole steer at one chaw!"

Uncle Sam's Safe

A NEAT JOB FOR AN ENTERPRISING BURGLAR—NINETY TONS OF COIN IN ONE VAULT—DESCRIPTION OF THE SUB-TREASURY IN NEW YORK.

[From the New York Gazette]

The vaults of the United States Sub Treasury are said to exceed in strength those of the Bank of England The strong and thoroughly fire and burglar-proof manner in which they have been constructed excites the admiration of all beholders. There are two of these immense vaults, one at the corner of the Pine street end of the rotunda. The rooms are perhaps twenty feet long by fifteen wide, and ten or twelve feet high. They contain no window, there is but one door opening into each, and gas lights are kept burning inside. The internal appearance of these vaults has a striking resemblance to a fashionable tomb in Greenwood cemetery, rows of cases being arranged around the sides of the room, each about two feet square, with iron doors attached. There is one door for each case, and when the apartment has been filled with bags of gold or bundles of greenbacks, the doors are closed. Each case will contain a half million of dollars, put up in bags of five thousand dollars each. When a case is thus filled the door is closed, and a seal is affixed in the presence of the naval officer and surveyor of the port. It takes one hundred bags to hold a half a million of dollars. In the first vault entered there are seventy-two compartments arranged around the room, which form a tier somewhat higher than a man's head.

Running over the top of these was a balcony with an iron railing in front, there was piled up in this balcony, in one heap, $6,000,000 in $5 and $10 bills; $50,000 in internal revenue stamps, $50,000 in fractional currency, put up in large paper boxes, and $5,500,000 in United States bonds.

The door of this vault rests on thirty feet of solid masonry, from the ground up, on the top of this granite there are two feet of wrought iron, and between the iron plates a space filled up with bullets. Should a rogue succeed in boring through the granite and iron, the moment his drill touched a bullet that would commence to revolve, and by the time he had penetrated it, another ball would drop in its place; in this way he would soon find that he had an endless job before him, and the attempt to get into the vault would have to be abandoned.

The sides and top of the room are composed of eight feet of granite and two of iron, arranged in the same manner as for the floor This safe, as it is called, was invented by Mr George R Jackson, of the Excelsior Iron Works. Mr. Rogers once remarked that if the people at the treasury building should happen to get locked out of the safe, it would take him a month to break into it! A night watch is kept to look after those strong boxes, but they are considered perfectly safe without him.

There are four doors to be opened, one after the other, before we can enter the safe. Each one of these doors weighs two tons, and contains two locks of different patterns. A lever is so arranged that after the doors are closed, four large iron bolts are thrown across the doorway, resting in sockets which have been made in a pillar of wrought iron. If a thief should succeed in cutting the hinges of one of the doors, usually considered to be the most vulnerable point, the door would not drop down from its place, and nothing would be gained. But, like the deacon's celebrated one-horse shay, their doors are made as strong in one part as in another, and the hinges show no signs of weakness. It will take a fearful earthquake to shake them down.

No good idea can be given to the reader of the locks and their operations; but a few general remarks may be of interest. The first door has one of Dodd's Eureka locks; there is a key hole for this, and the outside combination wheel is divided into the letters of the alphabet, the nine units and fractions of figure. The combinations which may be made by this arrangement are endless, and no one can open the lock, shoving back the bolts, unless he knows the words, fractions and figures which have been used in locking the door. Even if a person was so fortunate as to get from Mr. Birdsall the combination, he must have an extensive acquaintance with the lock to know how to manipulate it correctly. The second door contains an Isham lock, which is altogether different from Dodd's lock. The third door has L. Gale's monitor lock, and the fourth door contains Gale's double treasury locks. From one of these doors, after it has been fastened, a portion of the lock is taken off and put under lock and key in some secret place. Without this it would be useless to attempt to get into the safe

The second vault is much larger than the first one described, but just as difficult to get into. There are one hundred and twenty cases in this room where gold can be put and sealed up. At the time we looked into the vault, there were ninety tons, or forty-five million dollars in gold stored in the room, and twenty million dollars in paper. The greenbacks, as they are paid into the Treasury, are put up in packages of one thousand dollars, in bills all of the same denomination.

An inquiry made in relation to the counterfeit money which came into the treasury revealed the fact that there is a large amount of it in circulation, and some of it is so well executed that it passes as genuine with the national banks. The $100 and $50 greenbacks, and the $20 notes of the national currency are very dangerous to all persons outside of the treasury. Here they have never been deceived, but readily detect the counterfeit, immediately brand it in several places, and send it back to the bank from which it came to be redeemed and destroyed. We were shown some very handsomely executed $50 greenbacks, and quite a collection of fractional currency in different stages of completion, which had been seized by the detectives. One man can count forty thousand notes in a day of six hours. On the 11th inst., $1,850,000 were paid in by three o'clock. It is ascertained at the treasury that soon after the war closed, the South was flooded with counterfeit greenbacks, and as the people in that section of the country were unacquainted with the genuine money of the North, they readily took it.

The whole number of people employed in the building is seventy, and the amount in the Treasury exceeds $100,000,000.

Political Items.

Intelligence from Tennessee says that Gov. Brownlow counts upon a united negro support.

The Charleston Mercury, Charleston Courier, Columbia Phœnix and Wilmington Journal all urge the people of the Carolinas to co-operate with Gen. Sickles in carrying out the provisions of his recent order.

The Atlanta (Ga) Era says that the rebel Gen John C. Breckinridge "has advised his friends to accept in good faith the Sherman Reconstruction bill, as the surest and only mode of restoring the country to peace and quiet."

A. G. Brown of Mississippi is out in a letter urging the Mississippians to accept the reconstruction bill, as the conquerors have the right to legislate for the conquered, and the latter have no rights which the former are bound to respect.

Garrett Davis cannot support the regular Democratic party in Kentucky on account of the affiliation of that party with former rebels and he has written a letter indorsing the Conservative Union Democrats—Gov. Bramlette, Lieut. Gov. Jacobs and others.

At a meeting of the colored voters of Jacksonville, Florida, the following resolution, among others, was adopted:

"Resolved, That we, as a body, will support a Union ticket; we will support no man who has ever been in the Confederate service voluntarily."

Of Kentucky candidates for Congress on the Democratic side, one was a graduate of the rebel army, another recruited for the same, a third was a prisoner of war in the hands of Gen. Burnside, and a fourth jumped out of a back window to escape arrest when he and others were concocting a treasonable plot. A fine Democratic set this.

The Washington Star says that a leading State Senator of Virginia, who opposed the notion of the State Senate in legislating for a Convention under the Military Reconstruction Bill, is about, it is admitted, to advocate a compromise of the white voters of that State with the colored voters That is, to give the colored men the entire Congressional delegation if the white men are allowed to control the State Government.

The Baltimore correspondent of the Philadelphia Bulletin says that thousands in Maryland who supported the Conservative party at the last fall elections, and were hopeful thereby of securing peace, are now determined and determining to withdraw from that faction, and, if necessary, to vote for the most radical men and measures that can be set forth rather than submit to dictation and usurpation of ex rebels. If things go on as they have begun, and the excitement intensifies, as it surely will, insurrection and bloodshed may follow.

The Prussian Army.—According to a return just issued by the Prussian War Office, the total number of troops brought by Prussia into the field during the late war was 669,075. Of these, 442,440 belonged to the standing army, 129,025 to the reserve, and 97,588 to garrison. At the close of the war there were still 100,000 troops, consisting of 80 squadrons of the Landwehr, 33 fourth battalions of the army, and nearly the whole of the Landwehr of the second ban, who had been called into the field. The Landwehr was thus distributed: 24 infantry battalions of 802 men each, were attached to the first corps of reserve, 52 squadrons of cavalry to the cavalry of the line, and 92 infantry battalions, 14 squadrons of cavalry, 120 companies of artillery, and 26 detachments of pioneers were employed in garrisons.

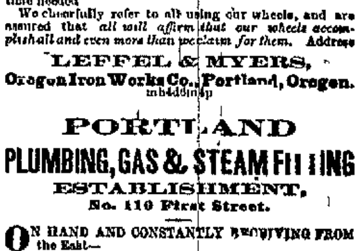
LEFFEL'S

AMERICAN DOUBLE TURBINE



THESE WHEELS, unequaled and unrivaled in the United States or the world, have been fully tested on this coast, more than forty being in use at this date, driving all kinds of machinery, Saw Mills, Flour Mills, Quartz Mills, Woolen Factories, &c, &c.

On account of the extraordinary demand, our stock of wheels is considerably reduced, and we are entirely out of several sizes; therefore parties contemplating using our wheel, to be certain of securing them in time, should give their order at least three months before they expect to get them, that we may be able to make them by the time needed

We cheerfully refer to all using our wheels, and are assured that all will affirm that our wheels accomplish all and even more than we claim for them. Address

IN EVERY PROGRESSIVE SCIENCE PERIODS ARRIVE when a new direction is imparted to its course. These epochs proceed from discovery of new facts, the light which changes the whole aspect of the science. The present is an epoch of this kind, and this Great [illegible] now offered to the public, in connection with the theory on which it is based, is destined to effect an entire revolution in the treatment of the diseases of

by eradicating the disease entirely from the blood. The FOUNTAIN OF LIFE is composed entirely of vegetable extracts; it contains no Mercury or other p[illegible]stance

The Proprietor and Discoverer of this Sovereign Remedy CHALLENGES THE WORLD to furnish anything, from the days of Æsculapius down to the present time, in the arcana of Medical science, which can vie with or match the intrinsic properties of this Great Blood Purifier. Its value has been tested with the happiest effect in the most obstinate cases of Scrofula, that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians in the world No matter what form the dreadful disease of SCROFULA and KING'S EVIL may have assumed, it can in no way be more safely and certainly arrested in its progress than by HENLEY'S GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER. Thousands have been sent into their graves, who had they made a timely use of the FOUNTAIN OF LIFE, might now be enjoying the blessings of life and health It requires an article of sterling merit and intrinsic value to sustain itself through the stern ordeal of public experiment the FOUNTAIN OF LIFE has stood the test trial, and not been found wanting.

☞ Dr. HENLEY guarantees to CURE any case of SCROFULA or KING'S EVIL in the world, and to remove the disease entirely from the system, or no charge made—provided they will secure him his pay when they are cured

FOR REFERENCE:

I would refer you to L L Peck, of Portland, Oregon, and numbers of others, as to what a [illegible] effect it had in a short time, in cases that had baffled the skill of physicians for years.
